NORFOLK AMATEUR RADIO CLUB CONSTITUTION

Any reference in this Constitution to the male gender shall be deemed to include Persons of the female gender.

1. DESIGNATION AND OBJECTIVES

- i) The Club shall be called The Norfolk Amateur Radio Club.
- ii) The object of the Club shall be to encourage and stimulate an interest in Amateur Radio and provide such facilities for the Members to follow such interests.
- iii) The Club may be affiliated to other organisations as considered meaningful in the pursuance of its objectives.
- iv) The Club shall be non-sectarian and non-political.

2. OFFICERS AND COMMITTEE.

The Club shall be managed by the following:-

Chairperson.

Vice Chairperson.

Honorary Secretary.

Honorary Treasurer.

Up to Eight but not less than Four Committee Members.

The above, the President and Vice-Presidents shall be elected at the Annual General meeting (See Rule 6.1).

After such election, the President may remain in office for three consecutive years. At the end of that term he may stand for re-election or be offered the office of Vice-President. The President may, at his discretion, attend and vote at Annual General Meetings, Extra-ordinary Meetings, and Committee Meetings. Vice Presidents may be appointed by the Committee for a period of three years, upon their names being put forward by the Chairperson, in recognition of outstanding services to the Club, and their appointments ratified at the following Annual General meeting. Vice-Presidents shall hold office for a period of three years. Honorary members may be appointed by the Committee upon their names being put forward by the President. Such appointments shall be in recognition of outstanding service to Amateur Radio at a National Level and ratified at the following Annual General Meeting. Both Vice Presidents and Honorary members have the same voting rights as Ordinary Members.

3. MEMBERSHIP.

A – Ordinary Members

- i) Membership shall be open to any person with a genuine and not solely commercial interest in Amateur Radio. Application for Membership shall be ratified by the Committee who shall have the power to veto any such application without necessarily stating their reason. Any fee paid by the unsuccessful candidate shall be refunded.
- ii) The period of Membership shall be from 1st January to 31st December inclusive in any one year. In the case of new Members the period shall at first be from the date of payment of their first Subscription to the following 31st December.
- iii) Membership shall be terminated through resignation, non-payment of the Subscription within the stipulated time, (See Rule 4(iii)), or through the following action by the Committee.
- iv) The Committee shall have the power to terminate the Membership of any individual if his actions are considered to be prejudicial to the interests of the Club or the generally accepted spirit of Amateur Radio. In such event the Committee shall deliver a written statement to the Member setting out the reason why the termination of his Membership is under review. The Member shall then be given the opportunity to select a date within the following thirty days, convenient to both himself and the Committee, on which a meeting shall be held to discuss the matter. At this meeting the Member shall have the right to invite a third party to assist in the presentation of his case. He shall also have the right to call witnesses and, through the Chair, question those initiating the complaint. At the end of the Meeting the Committee shall hold a secret ballot as to whether or not he should remain a Member and the Chairperson shall advise the Member privately of the outcome of that ballot.

B - Associate Members

- i) The purpose of an Associate Membership of NARC is to enable a person to maintain an associate link with NARC without being a regular visitor or Ordinary Member, subject to the following conditions:-
- ii) An Associate Member may make a maximum of five visits to the club per year, including participation in any external club events, when they will be a guest of the President, Chairperson or Vice-Chairperson. At such times, the Associate Member will comply with the rules of the NARC and those of the organisation where its meetings are held.

11. CLUB TROPHIES.

Rules for NARC Trophies

Trophies shall be awarded annually at the Annual General Meeting.

The Committee Cup. (Also known as the NARC Cup.)

Open to any Member, who at the time of selection is not an Officer of the Club or a Member of the Committee. The recipient to be selected in January of each year by the then existing Committee who shall chose the Member they deem to have achieved most to assist and promote the success of the Club during the previous year. Should the deliberations of the Committee prove inconclusive and a ballot is necessary the President shall abstain and cast the deciding vote in the event of a tie. The name of the winner shall not be divulged until the following AGM.

The President's Cup.

Open to all Members, including the Officers and Members of the Committee. The recipient to be selected in January of each year by the then President on the basis of the person he deems to have achieved most to assist and promote the success of the Club during the previous year. The name of the winner shall not be divulged before the following AGM. If he so wishes, the President may consult with the Chairman when making his selection.

The Construction Cup.

A display of home constructed electronic devices shall be held annually. Two Members with sound technical and construction knowledge, but who are not exhibiting, shall be appointed by the Chairperson or Vice Chairperson to judge the merits of each item. One such judge to be the winner of the event in the previous year. The judges to agree between themselves at least six headings under which marks shall be given in order to determine the winner. If they so wish the judges may award a Certificate of Merit to a constructor for work of a high standard bearing in mind the age, experience and ability of that person. Items may not necessarily have been built in the previous year and may be constructed from a commercial kit. There is no restriction on the number of years any item may be entered providing that it has not previously won an award.

The Foxhunt Trophy.

This trophy shall be awarded to the winner(s) of the Direction Finding Foxhunt Competition in accordance with current rules as set out by the committee. The winner(s) shall have the option to be the "fox" the following year and find a suitable location from which to operate.

The John Wadman Memorial Key.

Open to any Member of the Club who joined as a newcomer to the hobby and is deemed to have done most to assist and promote the success of the Club during the preceding year. The selection shall be made by the Committee in January of each year when they may call upon any Licensed Instructors and other Members to assist in that selection.

NB

John Wadman, G0VZD, was Chairperson of NARC from the mid 1990's until 2002 and becoming a silent key in 2003. During this period he devoted considerable time and effort to the training of newcomers in the hobby.

Speaker of the Year Award.

To be awarded to the Speaker who has presented the most interesting talk and/or demonstration during the previous year. Selection will be made by the vote of the Members from January and, to facilitate this step, a list of talks with the names of the speakers shall be circulated along with a voting slip to be signed by the voting Member. The votes shall be counted by the most senior Officer of the Club who has not made a presentation during the year, and in the event of a tie he will have the casting vote. The name of the winner shall not be divulged before the 'award' is to be presented. The NARC Speaker of the Year Trophy and a certificate will be presented in the event of the winner being a NARC member, or a certificate only in the event of the winner being a non-member.

Koblenz Plate

To be awarded to a member of the Club as a newcomer to the hobby for personal achievement and advancement in Amateur Radio. The selection shall be made by the committee in January of each year.

The name of the winner shall not be divulged before the trophy is to be presented.

NB

The Koblenz Plate was presented to NARC by Arno Herz DL1PBC and Ralph Schlüsener DM5RS on behalf of the Koblenz Amateur Radio Club during their visit in 2006 to commemorate the Norwich/Koblenz twinning links.

Peter Ives G3ASQ Youth Award

An award presented to the young member (under 18) who has tried hardest and made the most personal progress during the year including helping fellow young colleagues.

The Clubs Youth or Bright Sparks coordinators to make recommendations to the committee as to the most appropriate winner of this award.

NB

Peter Ives, G3ASQ, was a long time member and former president of NARC, (2003 to 2009), who was always keen to encourage youth and became a silent key in 2009.
